Ontario boating license study guide

The Canadian Pleasure Craft Operators Map (CFP) study guide is available BoaterExam.com®. You can register and complete the first chapter for free, then sign up to complete the next four chapters. Each chapter ends with a quiz, which you will have to pass with 80%. Once you've completed the full 5-chapter study guide, you're ready to take the final exam! Take the class now! or try the handy quiz Here are the details 1. Study the online course You can study the course of the house without a supervisor. Study at your own pace - you don't have to complete the course in one session, you can record your progress and log in at a later date. You can try Chapter 1 for free, but you have to pay a $49.95 fee to access the remaining 4 chapters. To move from one chapter to another, you need to pass a 10-question chapter end quiz with an 80% score. Each question on each quiz has detailed illustrations to help explain the questions and answers. Perfect for visual learners! If you fail a chapter end quiz, you must study the chapter again before attempting the quiz for a second time. You must spend a minimum of 3 hours studying the course before taking the final exam, but each chapter is fully animated to enhance your learning experience and help you retain the information you need to pass your exam. Some of the topics discussed by the course include: Applicable Laws Feeding Navigation Aids to Operating Loading License and Mooring Markings Preparation for Travel Anchor distress signals Equipment and maintenance lighting Avoid collisions 2. Take the Transport Canada final exam Once you have completed your studies, you can now take the Transport Canada final exam. The final consists of 50 multiple choice questions and you need a score of 75% to pass (38 correct answers) There is a delay of 90 seconds per question or 85 minutes for the entire exam. The good news is that this is an open book review, so you can use a resource to help you answer questions. With the deadline though, you should at least know where to find the information you're looking for. If you fail the final, you have to wait another 24 hours before attempting again (but there is no charge for that). If you fail a second time, you must study the entire course again. If you are careful the first time through the course, and study the full 3 hours, you should take the final exam on your first attempt. 3. Get the Pleasure Craft Operator Card Once you have passed the final exam, you will your score immediately and are able to print a temporary certificate. This temporary card allows you to go boating right away while waiting for your permanent licence to arrive (the permanent license usually arrives in 3-4 weeks). Your temporary card is good for 60 days, your permanent license is good for life! Once you have your card, you have an obligation to go boating across Canada and the United States! 10 Question Boating Safety Practice Test how do you stack up with your basic knowledge of boat safety? Do you know which side of the boat is on the port side? Do you know what H.E.L.P.'s position is? Do you know the most suitable place to store your marine fire extinguisher? Take this BoaterExam.com® handy test to see if you understand some of the basics of boating safety! You must answer 8 out of 10 questions correctly!
